

Trefeglwys Eisteddfod

Trefeglwys Annual Eisteddfod Committee is a registered charity that aims to support and provide cultural activities for all ages. The origins of Trefeglwys Eisteddfod can be traced back to the 19th century. It is well supported by the community and attracts competitors from across Wales and beyond. Poetry, creative writing, arts and crafts are adjudicated before the day of the Eisteddfod held annually in the autumn at Trefeglwys Memorial Hall. Singing, recitation, instrumental performances and dancing are adjudicated on the day when many children from Ysgol Dyffryn Trannon take part. Competitors from Trefeglwys Eisteddfod have gone on to compete in the National Eisteddfod and have won major prizes.

Trefeglwys Eisteddfod Committee depends on donations to cover the cost of paying adjudicators, accompanists, hall fees and prizes. Trefeglwys Community Council has provided a grant from the Carno Wind Farm Fund every year and in 2026 was very pleased to be able to increase the grant to £500 to reflect the increase in costs over recent years.

The 2026 Trefeglwys Eisteddfod will be held on Saturday 17th October at Trefeglwys Memorial Hall.

Winner of the Chair competition at the 2025 Eisteddfod, Eifion Daniel's from Pembrokeshire with some of the Eisteddfod Committee members.
